TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

LOCATION: The Woman’s Club of Chevy Chase, 7931 Connecticut Avenue, Chevy Chase, MD 20815

DATE: Saturday, December 7, 2024

TIMES: Artist set up: 8:00 - 10:00 a.m.
Public exhibition: 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Take down: 5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

1. The artist must be a member of the James Renwick Alliance for Craft (“JRACraft”) within a month of acceptance into the event and on JRACraft Day.
2. All work for sale by an artist must be the original work of the artist.
3. All works for sale at JRACraft Day must be marked with retail prices or a price list must be clearly available. All payments by purchasers will be made to JRACraft according to the procedures set by JRACraft.
4. JRACraft will receive 30 percent of the artist’s sales from JRACraft Day, exclusive of sales tax. JRACraft will pay all credit card fees and sales taxes. Payment will be remitted to the artist no later than forty-five (45) days after JRACraft Day.
5. The artist agrees to provide at least three representative photographs of work for sale by July 15, 2024. Photographs must reflect current work and be different than those previously submitted and/or used by JRACraft Day. Photographs must be 300 dpi JPEG files 500 KB or larger. A square format will be used for all online images and photographs received in another format will be cropped accordingly.
6. The artist gives JRACraft permission to use the artist’s name and any photographs provided to JRACraft in all publicity relating to JRACraft Day, prior to, during, and after the event and in any catalog, and program for the event and to use photographs of the artist and/or the artist’s work taken during the event. The artist must have all permissions necessary for JRACraft’s use of any photographs the artist provides. JRACraft will make reasonable efforts to ensure that photographic credits are included with any use of the artist’s photographs if the artist provides such credits to JRACraft, but does not guarantee that credits will be used.
7. The artist agrees to provide bio information by July 15, 2024, and to allow the use of the 50- to 100-word bio in all publicity relating to JRACraft Day, prior to, during and after the event and in any catalog and program for the event. The bio may be edited at JRACraft’s discretion.
8. Promotional materials will be available in PDF and JPEG formats. Artists agree to publicize the show through their email lists and other electronic media (e.g., Facebook, X/Twitter, Instagram).
9. The artist agrees to notify JRACraft no later than October 1, 2024, if the artist is unable to fulfill this contract. Artists who do not fulfill their contractual obligations shall not be considered for future JRACraft Day events, although extenuating circumstances may be reviewed on an individual basis.
10. JRACraft reserves the right to postpone or cancel JRACraft Day if there is insufficient artist interest or due to events beyond its control, including but not limited to inclement weather or government restrictions on gatherings. JRACraft shall notify participating artists promptly of any decision to postpone or cancel JRACraft Day. If JRACraft Day is postponed, all accepted artists shall be given the option to participate on the new date. If JRACraft Day is cancelled, all accepted artists shall be given preference for acceptance into the next scheduled JRACraft Day, provided they submit new applications by the deadline for the next show.
11. The artist agrees to be responsible for liability insurance as it relates to the artist’s work and the artist’s actions during the show. The artist agrees that JRACraft shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the artist’s work or arising from JRACraft’s reasonable actions in connection with the show, including but not limited to any loss or damage to any of the property of the artist or for any personal injury of the artist and/or an artist’s assistant during the event, set up, and/or take down. JRACraft shall not be liable for any errors in information provided by the artist to JRACraft or for errors in the information provided on the show web site if the artist does not request a correction. JRACraft holds general liability insurance.

PRESENCE:

The artist or a representative of the artist must be present during JRACraft Day.

PROGRAM:

The program will list participating artists in alphabetical order, including name, business name (if different), telephone number, email address, and web site.

SIGNAGE AND IDENTIFICATION:

A sign will be posted on each table/board with the artist's name and business name. A name tag for the artist and an assistant will be posted at the space and must be worn at all times. There is a limit of one assistant per artist.

UNLOADING/PARKING:

Porters will not be available. There is a ramp from the parking lot to the building. Artists must provide their own carts. Free parking is available. Artists and their assistants must park in the rear of the parking lot after unloading.

SET UP/TAKE DOWN:

1. Work may be brought into the building for set up at 8:00 a.m.
2. Upon arrival, artists should proceed to their numbered booth space.
3. Booth spaces will be set up according to the floor plan set by JRACraft; the floor plan may not be altered without advance approval by the JRACraft Day co-chairs.
4. Set-up requests. A set-up request does not guarantee approval.
5. Each artist may request one 6' x 2-1/2' table.
6. The availability of booth space that accommodates an artist's own furniture is limited and must be approved in advance. Artists may request to provide their own furniture (no request necessary for table risers and exhibition furniture that sits on a JRACraft Day-provided 6' x 2-1/2' table). Artists must submit the following information with request: (1) Booth layout showing furniture placement; (2) Description of each piece of furniture (panel, shelving, table, etc.); (3) Dimensions of each piece of furniture (H/W/D); (4) Photograph of furniture. Artists will be notified by September 1, 2024, whether their requests are granted. If a request to use your own furniture cannot be accommodated, you will be assigned a table.
7. All furnishings, goods, and supplies must fit in the booth space allocated. Depending on the location of the booth, furniture must fit within a 6'-wide space or, if the booth is located in front of a window, an 8'-wide space.
8. For the tables, artists will provide the cover, preferably to the floor. Before setting up artists should check table legs to make sure they are properly latched.
9. Up to two chairs will be provided for each space.
10. Storage space is limited to space within each booth.
11. Artists are responsible for lighting their work if they require light other than general ambient lighting. Shared power strips are provided for artists in the center of the room. Artists using lights are permitted to have one extension cord running out of the booth to an outlet. Artists will need to provide the equivalent of standard orange extension cords within and outside their booths and power strips for multiple extension cords if necessary within their booths.
12. Packing may not begin until the show closes at 5:00 p.m.
13. Exhibition space must be left clean at the end of the show.

SALE PROCESS:

1. All works for sale at JRACraft Day must be marked with retail prices or a price list must be clearly available.
2. Artist writes sales ticket, provided by JRACraft, retains Copy 3, and holds item.
3. Purchaser takes sales ticket to the JRACraft sales desk and pays by check, cash, or credit card. Copy 1 is retained at sales desk.
4. Purchaser takes Copy 2, the sales ticket marked "paid," back to artist to pick up item.
5. Purchaser retains Copy 2.
6. Artists provide own packing materials.
7. JRACraft shopping bags will be available (8" W x 6" D x 10" H).

SHIPPING:

JRACraft will not provide shipping. The artist may agree to provide shipping to purchasers and may include reasonable shipping charges on the invoice for a purchased work. In such cases, JRACraft will remit the shipping charge to the artist along with the artist's share of the proceeds from the sale.

PACKING:

The artist agrees to abide by JRACraft's requirements for set up and post-event packing. The artist will not be permitted to store materials or works at the site of the event or JRACraft office prior to or after the event. During the event, storage space will be limited as described above.
